

Students in the year 7 eco group interview the head of catering, Clare Melay; to find out what the canteen is doing about single use plastics! All took it in turns to ask her questions about the use of plastics with a view to educating the school. In the long run they are hoping to help make the school plastic clever!